

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE VOLUNTEER EFFORTS OF
ANDREW D'AMICO AND ROBERT CHINNERY, JR. AND EXPRESSING THE APPRECIATION OF THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF SPRING LAKE

WHEREAS, the Borough of Spring Lake committed to applying to the Monmouth County Community Development Program for a grant to make improvements to the Historic First Aid Building; and

WHEREAS, a mandatory requirement of the CDBG Grant Application is the submission of a video presentation highlighting the subject of the application; and

WHEREAS, Andrew D'Amico and Robert Chinnery, Jr., Spring Lake residents and rising high school seniors volunteered to film, edit and produce the video, including interviews and musical background; and

WHEREAS, these young men each volunteered approximately 20 hours of their time to meet with Borough Officials to discuss the application, and to film, edit and produce the video, and

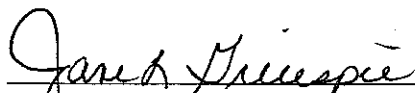

WHEREAS, the video produced by Mr. D'Amico and Mr. Chinnery was an important component of the Borough's Grant Application and will hopefully be instrumental to the success of that Application; and

WHEREAS, the selfless commitment and volunteerism of these young men should serve as an example to other Spring Lake residents and youths;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Borough Council of the Borough of Spring Lake that the Borough of Spring Lake recognizes the volunteer efforts of Andrew D'Amico and Robert Chinnery, Jr. and, on behalf of the residents of Spring Lake, expresses their appreciation for those efforts.
